

Born Feb. 17, 1985, in Mountain View, Christopher Meadows was killed tragically in an accident while volunteering with San Luis Obispo County Search and Rescue May 24, 2009. Christopher attended Laurelwood Elementary School, Peterson Middle School and Archbishop Mitty High School. He graduated with honors in 2007 from California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, with a BS in business administration and minors in psychology and economics.

Christopher lived in San Luis Obispo and worked as an EMT for San Luis Ambulance Company. He also volunteered regularly with the San Luis Obispo County Sheriffs Search and Rescue Team. Christopher loved adventure, traveled worldwide and passionately pursued many interests during the course of his short life, including photography, medicine, scuba diving and boating. Music was his inspiration and he spent most of his time surrounded by friends and family who loved him. At Cal Poly, he was active in Delta Sigma Pi business fraternity, where he received the Regional Collegian of the Year Award in 2007. Christopher lived life to the fullest and didn't want to leave with a "Why didn't I"
